

ORLEANS COUNTY MONITOR

Vol. 42—No. 33

BARTON, VERMONT, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 13, 1913

Single Copies 5 Cents.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

Advertisements will be inserted under this head at two cents per word for first insertion and one cent per word thereafter. Cash must accompany the order. No advertisement will be inserted for less than twenty-five cents.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—My residence on Park St. Inquire of A. C. Chester, Barton. 12tf

FOR SALE—Scotch collie puppies, also quantity of straw, E. A. Norton, Glover. 32tf

FOR SALE—Full set good carpenter tools with chest. Mrs. James McFarland, Barton. 30tf

FOR SALE—12 young horses, weight 1200 to 1550 lbs. at Will Hinton's, East Charleston, Vt., H. J. Hudson. 31-36p

FOR SALE—Three bay filly colts, two four years old and broken, one three years old. One new cedar tub. Alfred Brown, Orleans. 33tf

FOR SALE—Sawdust at our Brownington mill. As large load as you want for 25 cents. Chandler Company. 6tf

FOR SALE—Fine maple sugar in ten-pound pails at 12 cents and linseed oil at 55 cents per gallon. F. W. Baldwin, Barton. 30tf

FOR SALE—Pianos, player-pianos, organs, violins, banjos, mandolins, sheet music and music books. Everything pertaining to music. "The Free" sewing machine, oil needles and repairs for all machines. A. R. Cowles, Orleans. 33tf

FOR SALE—In Orleans, Vt., a good house, eight rooms besides halls, closets, bath room, woodshed and nice cellar, hot and cold water. New barn with basement, carriage room, garage, three horse stalls and hay loft. Electric lights in house and barn. Buildings newly painted this year. Nice lawn, garden and shade trees. Inquire of Jerre Marston, Orleans, Vt., or N. B. Williams, North Craftsbury, Vt. 31-36p

TO RENT

TO RENT—Office tenement. Mrs. Clara Colby, Barton. 33tf

TO RENT—Small or larger tenement. L. K. Heath, Orleans. 33tf

TO RENT—Furnished rooms. Mrs. Powney, Barton. 30-33p

WANTED

WANTED—Competent cook. Mosher's Restaurant, Barton. 29tf

WANTED—Girls to wait tables at Hotel Barton during fair. 32tf

WANTED—Live poultry. Eggs not over week old. Elrick, Express office, Barton. 18tf

WANTED AT ONCE—500 broiler chickens. 15 cents a pound, empty crops. Elrick, express office, Barton. 1wp

ROOMS WANTED—Anyone having rooms to let during fair notify J. V. Rowen, Hotel Barton. 32tf

TO RENT—Two furnished rooms and barn with three stalls through fair. A. Wilkie, High street. 1wp

WANTED—20 men to work on state road in Westmore. I. O. Robinson, Barton, R. F. D. 31-33p

HELP WANTED—A woman to do housework in family of three. Mrs. F. C. Williams, Newport. 25tf

WANTED—You to train for and accept a good position. Write for particulars. Nashua Business College, Nashua, N. H. 28-34p

WANTED—20 colts sired by Don Pedro for exhibition Orleans County Fair. See special offer in premium list. Elwin Graves. 1wp

WANTED—Two good teachers, also young teacher for school of eight scholars. Write or telephone C. H. Atkins, Westmore. 33tf

WANTED—Boarding places for teachers and pupils of Orleans schools. Also places where high school pupils can earn their board. R. M. Wells or Prin. J. F. Smith Orleans. 33tf

WANTED—Girls and boys to wait tables at fairground through fair, also pastry cooks and kitchen help. Make application at once. J. V. Rowen, Hotel Barton. 32tf

WANTED—Several more reliable men to learn the auto business and prepare to fill positions at salary of $15 to $30 per week. Write stating age, Maine Auto Co., Taylor St. Garage, Portland, Me. 32-35

LOST

LOST—Between Brownington electric mill and Willoughby lake, white sweater with letters, "C B B." Finder return to A. A. Doe. Reward. 33-34

MISCELLANEOUS

NOTICE—All persons are forbidden picking blackberries on my premises. Peter Stone, Glover. 1wp

NEWSPAPER and magazine illustrating, cartooning, all newspaper advertising and show card writing. Call or write O. A. Lyon, Barton. 32tf

Those wishing nice green peas and string beans for canning, can get them of us this week at a low price. We have also a quantity of canning beans. A. R. Wakeman, Barton. 1w

Barton Academy and Graded School.

The fall term of school will open Tuesday, Sept. 24, with only two changes in the teaching force. Miss Alice Dutton of Hardwick will succeed Miss Findlay in the fourth and fifth grades and Miss Jessie Comstock will teach the first grade. Miss Ruggles, who is in Paris studying French and music, will return Sept. 15 to resume her work in those subjects. The outlook for the school is excellent. The attendance promises to be large and with the excellent corps of teachers in charge a high standard of work is assured.

Episcopal Mission Notes.

Services next Sunday at 10.45 a. m.

Visitors from Canada will please note that this church is known in Canada as, "The Church of England."

Examinations.

Teachers' examinations and examinations for free tuition to high school will be held at Barton academy August 14th and 15th.

Free tuition examinations will be given in the high school room at Orleans also.

C. L. Erwin, Supt.

31-33

Congregational Church Notes.

Services will be held Sunday next as usual after a two weeks' vacation. The C. E. meeting Sunday evening will be held on the heights near L. M. Hubbard's house overlooking the lake. The hour will be 6.30 o'clock. The subject is "Lessons from the Forests and Fields." Ps. 104, 1-35. Leaders, Robert Scott, Maynard Foster. Everyone is invited.

"Paid in Full"

"Paid in Full" will be presented at Seaver's opera house, Thursday, Aug. 21st for one night only. It is the only play that has ever lasted through a summer in New York city, where it scored a record run of over two years. It is the only play that has ever run an entire summer in New York and Chicago. It has been witnessed by over five million people. The management has devoted special attention to the most effective presentation of a drama, that by every estimate exceeds in popularity as in worth any other ever produced in this country. The production to be seen in Barton is notable in every respect. Each member of the cast is particularly chosen, which means that the interesting characters, in which the play abounds, will be strikingly portrayed. Miss Eily O'Connor, a brilliant young actress, will be seen in the role of Emma Brooks, while Will E. Williams will enact the role of Captain Williams. The supporting company is one that New York has applauded in this play. The scenic effects have been carefully created, the entire production being carried. Seats on sale at Pierce's. Prices 25, 35 and 50 cents.

BARTON

Elsinore Buswell, who has been very sick, is better.

Mrs. L. P. Page is entertaining Mrs. A. D. Patterson.

Miss Ruth Jewell is visiting relatives at Newport.

Fred Percival was a business caller in town this week.

Miss Carrie Cook is at Willoughby lake for her vacation.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis, Aug. 9th.

Mrs. Lamplough of Burlington is the guest of Miss Lida Warner.

Mrs. C. H. Spaulding spent several days in Burlington recently.

Miss Louise LaFrierer of Fairfax is a guest at O. H. Mossman's.

The schools of the town of Barton will open Monday Sept. 1st.

Rev. Mr. Titus has been quite ill the past week, but is improving.

Miss Pearl Robinson is visiting Miss Glen Robinson of St. Johnsbury.

R. Shiril Hutchins has returned home and is employed at Hotel Barton.

Mrs. Altha Pierce is in Lyndonville, visiting at the home of E. L. Wells.

Miss Carrie Jones and mother have been spending a week in West Burke.

Mrs. George Rowen is assisting in the telephone central office for a time.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Mitchell of Lake street Saturday.

The bank will be closed Saturday in observance of Bennington Battle day.

Thomas Redington sails this week from Montreal for his home in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Watson of Boston called on friends in town this week.

Miss Viva Potter has been visiting Miss Clara Young of Glover for a week.

Eber Humphrey and family of Newport visited at Wm. Cobb's last week.

Miss Eva Rosebrooks of West Burke was the guest of friends in town last week.

Mrs. Elmer Smith and son Robert of St. Johnsbury are visiting friends in town.

Walter Gilmour of Norwich university was a recent caller on friends in town.

C. G. Aldrich of Somerville, Mass., was a recent guest of relatives in town.

Mrs. F. W. Baldwin is visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. P. Baldwin, in camp.

THE FAIR NEXT WEEK

The First Annual Event under the New Regime Next Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday. Big Live Stock Show.

Fair time is at hand! And first of all the dozen or more fairs in Vermont comes the annual Orleans county fair and it is the first exhibition under the new organization told of in these columns several weeks ago. More than 250 people all over this county are personally interested in this fair and they are behind it to make it a fair for the people. They don't expect to reach perfection right away, especially this year, as there has been only about three weeks in which to prepare. Four weeks ago it was not known to a certainty that Orleans county was to have a fair this year at all. But the people finally said they must have a fair and the dates are Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week.

Secretary Hamblet says the prospect for a fine cattle show was never better. In touring the county in the interests of organizing the county-wide association the farmers became interested and Mr. Hamblet says in his several years' experience as secretary he has never received so many inquiries and so many promises of entries as this year. This is as it should be and is the forerunner of a great agricultural fair in the future. Orleans county stands near the top agriculturally in the state, has some of the finest dairies in Vermont, some fine farms and should when it "hits the pace," have one of the finest agricultural exhibitions in this section of New England.

Mr. Hamblet also says that the races have filled beyond his fondest hopes and that he expects a fine string of races as has been seen on the grounds for several years.

All classes have filled well and a field of starters for the purses is expected. In fact, everything points to a good fair. No overshadowing special attraction has been purchased but several stage exhibits of merit have been engaged, as advertising in this paper will show, three excellent ball games have been arranged, band concerts, premium stock cavalcade and the other regular features will provide full days.

It has been decided to check people off the grounds after 11 o'clock in the forenoon.

The management have made arrangements to have a special train from the city on Wednesday and Thursday leaving St. Johnsbury at 8.15 in the morning and stopping at all way stations. It will return after the races in the evening. The air line south will be stopped the last three days of the fair at Orleans also.

The ball games as scheduled for 10 o'clock on each day are as follows: Wednesday, St. Johnsbury vs. Newport; Thursday, North Troy vs. Newport; Friday, Orleans vs. Frontiers.

It is expected that the Barton band will furnish music Wednesday, the Orleans band Thursday and the Irasburg band Friday of the fair.

The grounds begin to take on the appearance of the coming event, and all's well for the fair.

Mrs. H. E. Paige is entertaining Miss Flossie Phillips of Springfield, Mass.

A son, Kenneth Eldon, was born Aug. 9th to Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Laclair.

Mrs. Martha Patterson of Craftsbury is visiting her sister, Mrs. Zuar Hanson.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Buchanan of Craftsbury visited at John Urie's Sunday.

Mrs. F. H. Pillsbury is working in the millinery store of Mrs. C. L. Hutchins.

Milo J. Owen, who has been in the west some time on business, has returned.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Watson of Sutton are visitors at Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Adams's.

Mrs. Ernest Preston and son Sidney of Holyoke, Mass., are guests at W. A. Roystan's.

Mrs. Zuar Hanson has been visiting friends and relatives in Craftsbury for two weeks.

Miss Frances Butler was a guest of Miss Carrie Cook at Willoughby lake over Sunday.

Robert Jewell has returned from Boston, where he has been spending several weeks.

Mrs. A. A. Larabee is entertaining her sister, Miss Alta Beane of North Hatley, P. Q.

C. E. Hamblet has built a garage and made some repairs and alterations in his buildings.

Mrs. A. R. Marsh of Enosburg Falls is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Mosher.

Mrs. Alma Wiggins of New Britain, Conn., is a guest of Mrs. E. E. Liddell and other friends.

An operation for the removal of adenoids was performed upon Arlene Flanders last week.

W. M. Wright and W. W. Reiden were in Boston and Providence last week on business.

Miss Sada Page, a nurse in the Ancon hospital of Panama, is visiting at Kimball Page's.

Third social dance at the club house on Friday evening. All members are urged to come out.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Batchelder and Miss Gertrude Skinner are in camp at Crystal Lake Grove.

LYNDONVILLE CAMP MEETING.

The following is the program for the camp meeting and Bible school at Lyndonville, August 14th to 24th inclusive. Thursday, August 14, 7.30 p. m., opening sermon, Rev. J. Q. Angell, West Burke; Friday, 8.00 a. m., morning devotion in charge of Superintendent. Each day at same hour. 10.30 a. m., sermon, Rev. F. E. Currier, Danville; 1.00 p. m., Children's meeting, Rev. C. W. Kelley, Newport Center. Each day at same hour. 2.00 p. m., sermon, Rev. F. H. Roberts, Greensboro; 6.30 p. m., Young People's meeting in charge of Alice Foster, district deaconess; 7.00 p. m., sermon, Rev. E. B. Harris, Coventry; Saturday, August 16, 10.30 a. m., sermon, Rev. R. H. Moore, Lyndonville; 2.00 p. m., sermon, Rev. I. P. Chase, Concord; 7.30 p. m., sermon, Rev. A. D. Simpson, Lunenburg, Sunday, August 17, 10.30 a. m., sermon, Rev. W. S. Smithers, Orleans; 2.00 p. m., sermon, Rev. R. N. Jocelyn, Newport; 7.30 p. m., sermon, Rev. A. W. Barnlund, Idaho. Monday, August 18, 2.00 p. m., sermon, Rev. Glenn W. Douglass, Glover; 7.30 p. m., sermon, Rev. O. E. Barnard, Tuesday, August 19, 10.30 a. m., address, "The Church and the Rural Problem," Rev. D. G. Porteous, East Burke. Afternoon devoted to the Sunday school. 2.00 p. m., address on the Bible school, Rev. William Shaw; 3.00 p. m., address, Rev. I. A. Ranney, Cabot; 3.30 p. m., address, Hon. A. F. Stone, St. Johnsbury; 7.30 p. m., sermon, Rev. William Shaw, Wednesday, August 20, 10.30 a. m., sermon, Rev. P. B. L. Seller, Peacham; 2.00 p. m., sermon, Rev. F. W. Lewis, Groton; 7.30 p. m., sermon, Rev. O. L. Barnard, Waits River. Thursday, August 21, 10.30 a. m., address, Rev. G. L. Wells, Irasburg; 2.00 p. m., Woman's Foreign Missionary society, address, Dr. Rachel Benn, China; 7.30 p. m., sermon, Rev. Paul Dwight Moody, St. Johnsbury. Friday, August 22, 10.30 a. m., sermon, Rev. John Jones, Hardwick; 2.00 p. m., Woman's Home Missionary society, address, Rev. B. S. Hayward, D. D., Washington, D. C.; 7.30 p. m., sermon, Rev. Peter Back, St. Johnsbury. Saturday, August 23, Epworth League Special Program, 10.30 a. m., "Possibilities of the Junior League," Rev. C. W. Kelley, superintendent first conference district, E. L.; 2.00 p. m., address, Rev. Milton Butler Pratt, D. D., Amsterdam, N. Y.; 7.30 p. m., address, Rev. Frederick Palladino, Bangor, Me. Sunday, August 24, 9.30 a. m., Love Feast; 10.30 a. m., sermon, Rev. Frederick Palladino, Bangor, Me.; 2.00 p. m., sermon, Rev. Milton Butler Pratt, D. D., Amsterdam, N. Y.; 7.30 p. m., sermon, Rev. Milton Butler Pratt, D. D., Amsterdam, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Dyke of Northfield are visiting at G. H. Davis's and among other friends.

Charles Marsh and Miss Nina Marsh of Newport Center were guests at C. L. Erwin's last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Black of Dorchester, Mass., are at H. E. Paige's for a vacation.

C. M. Darling has opened the Crystal Lake House for the purpose of renting rooms through the fair.

Miss Bertha Hutchins of Woodsville, N. H., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hutchins.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Seaver have returned from a visit to Amory Seaver at Kennebunk Beach, Me.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Farrington and daughter of Orleans have been visiting at Mrs. Martha Seaver's.

Mrs. Z. Marsh and daughter Arlene spent the past week with Mrs. B. R. Sherburne of Glover.

Misses Glen and Mildred Lang visited their aunt, Mrs. C. E. Blood, in East Charleston last week.

Miss Catherine Wilcox is spending part of her vacation from U. V. M., with her aunt, Miss Colburne.

Mrs. Alvin Tripp and daughters, Doris and Dora, visited relatives in Holland and Morgan last week.

Mrs. A. A. Larabee was called to North Hatley, P. Q., last week to attend the funeral of a cousin.

G. H. Davis, with his brother, Dr. Fred Davis of Lyndonville, is at Tim Pond camps, Me., for two weeks.

Miss Susie Paddock of Jersey City, N. J., is visiting for several days at A. R. Cowles's and calling on friends.

Mrs. George Barnstead and son Richard of Stoneham, Mass., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. White.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Pearson of Concord, N. H., are the guests of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Pearson.

Mrs. Della Baldwin, a former teacher in this village, has been a guest this week of her aunt, Mrs. E. F. Dutton.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Silver are combining business and pleasure in an automobile trip through Essex county.

Mrs. Clara Burroughs has returned to her home in St. Johnsbury after visiting her mother, Mrs. F. K. Powell.

Many from town attended the Field day at Willoughby lake Saturday and also the circus at Newport despite the rain.

D. D. Bean of St. Johnsbury and Frank Bean and family of Watertown, Mass., called on friends in town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Thornburg of Waltham, Mass., have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Seaver for the week.

Mrs. Harry Graves and son Russell are visiting at L. M. Hubbard's and this week to join Mr. Graves in Barre.

VERMONT'S PROBLEMS

Country Life Problems and How to Solve Them Discussed by Mr. Green.

The following was given by G. Leland Greene, principal of the Vermont State Agricultural school of Randolph, in response to a toast at the Alumni banquet of Barton academy last June, on country life problems. Mr. Greene is a native of this county and one of our rising young men, who is trying to solve Vermont's perplexing problems, and the Monitor is glad to be able to give this toast of Mr. Greene's in full.

"For a generation, schools and colleges in debates, class, club and fraternity, have popularized all phases of the city problem, the very difficulties of which have challenged the country-bred boy to throw in his life where the maelstrom was the swiftest. The cry has ever been, would you gain name and fame and money and pleasure?"

"If so, then, O young man, betake yourself to the city. Only very recently have thinking men realized that this continual drain of the country's best blood to the city has produced rural problems really more serious in their nature than the city problems.

And why more serious? Because the whole fabric of city life depends directly upon the country for its very existence. In spite of the growth of the cities the nation is still rural. Agriculture is still the main business of our people. The nation's prosperity still depends upon 'bumper crops.' The nation's character still depends upon its country conscience. In 1912, 500 leading business and professional of New York city met at a Y. M. C. A. banquet when it was discovered that nine-tenths of these influential city leaders claimed the country as their birthplace. They were born on farms in the open country or in villages of the country less than 100 miles from the city. It has been estimated that three generations of city life without the infusion of vigorous country blood, would cause the city to suffer complete decadence. The city has been termed the 'graveyard of national physique.' With its moral and industrial overstrain, health is buried as well as youthful ambitions and hopes. The country could get along very well without the city but the city could not exist one month without the country. A railway strike last fall in England revealed the fact that Birmingham had only one week's supply of food. The philosophy of one of the sages of China, uttered ages ago is profoundly true. 'The well-being of a people is like a tree; agriculture is its root, manufactures and commerce are its branches and its life; but if the root be injured, the leaves fall, the branches break away and the tree dies.' You cannot continually skim the cream off a pan of milk and still have good milk left. The continual drain of the country's best blood to the city then, has made the country life problem more pressing than any other North American problem. President Roosevelt realized this when he inaugurated the policy of conserving our natural resources and appointed the country life commission. President Wilson and Secretary Houston realize it and we ought to thank God tonight that the rank and file of the people of America are today turning their attention to the needs of the rural communities as never before.

"Let us, for a moment, study the last census report. We find that the rural population of the United States in 1850 was thirty-five millions; in 1904, forty-five millions and in 1910, fifty millions. This shows a general increase in the rural population so that rural decadence is no longer a possibility.

"Let us, for a moment, study the last census report. We find that the rural population of the United States in 1850 was thirty-five millions; in 1904, forty-five millions and in 1910, fifty millions. This shows a general increase in the rural population so that rural decadence is no longer a possibility.

"Let us, for a moment, study the last census report. We find that the rural population of the United States in 1850 was thirty-five millions; in 1904, forty-five millions and in 1910, fifty millions. This shows a general increase in the rural population so that rural decadence is no longer a possibility.

"Let us, for a moment, study the last census report. We find that the rural population of the United States in 1850 was thirty-five millions; in 1904, forty-five millions and in 1910, fifty millions. This shows a general increase in the rural population so that rural decadence is no longer a possibility.

"Let us, for a moment, study the last census report. We find that the rural population of the United States in 1850 was thirty-five millions; in 1904, forty-five millions and in 1910, fifty millions. This shows a general increase in the rural population so that rural decadence is no longer a possibility.

"Let us, for a moment, study the last census report. We find that the rural population of the United States in 1850 was thirty-five millions; in 1904, forty-five millions and in 1910, fifty millions. This shows a general increase in the rural population so that rural decadence is no longer a possibility.

"Let us, for a moment, study the last census report. We find that the rural population of the United States in 1850 was thirty-five millions; in 1904, forty-five millions and in 1910, fifty millions. This shows a general increase in the rural population so that rural decadence is no longer a possibility.

"Let us, for a moment, study the last census report. We find that the rural population of the United States in 1850 was thirty-five millions; in 1904, forty-five millions and in 1910, fifty millions. This shows a general increase in the rural population so that rural decadence is no longer a possibility.

"Let us, for a moment, study the last census report. We find that the rural population of the United States in 1850 was thirty-five millions; in 1904, forty-five millions and in 1910, fifty millions. This shows a general increase in the rural population so that rural decadence is no longer a possibility.

"Let us, for a moment, study the last census report. We find that the rural population of the United States in 1850 was thirty-five millions; in 1904, forty-five millions and in 1910, fifty millions. This shows a general increase in the rural population so that rural decadence is no longer a possibility.

"Let us, for a moment, study the last census report. We find that the rural population of the United States in 1850 was thirty-five millions; in 1904, forty-five millions and in 1910, fifty millions. This shows a general increase in the rural population so that rural decadence is no longer a possibility.

"Let us, for a moment, study the last census report. We find that the rural population of the United States in 1850 was thirty-five millions; in 1904, forty-five millions and in 1910, fifty millions. This shows a general increase in the rural population so that rural decadence is no longer a possibility.

"Let us, for a moment, study the last census report. We find that the rural population of the United States in 1850 was thirty-five millions; in 1904, forty-five millions and in 1910, fifty millions. This shows a general increase in the rural population so that rural decadence is no longer a possibility.

"Let us, for a moment, study the last census report. We find that the rural population of the United States in 1850 was thirty-five millions; in 1904, forty-five millions and in 1910, fifty millions. This shows a general increase in the rural population so that rural decadence is no longer a possibility.

"Let us, for a moment, study the last census report. We find that the rural population of the United States in 1850 was thirty-five millions; in 1904, forty-five millions and in 1910, fifty millions. This shows a general increase in the rural population so that rural decadence is no longer a possibility.

Annual Meeting of the Orleans Historical Society.

The annual meeting of the above named organization is called at the schoolhouse in Barton, Friday, Aug. 15th at 1.30 o'clock in the afternoon at which time all members and those interested are requested to be present. Officers will be elected and other business transacted. The work at hand for the society now is the publication of material gathered at the centennial celebration in Lowell last year, and the historical addresses at the dedication of the Wright monument in Coventry. There are many valuable historical facts in these speeches that should be permanently recorded. There is great opportunity for work in this county, which is replete with data awaiting investigation and recording.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Barrows took an automobile trip through Franconia Notch, spending the week end at North Woodstock, N. H., guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Webber of Lyndonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Brown and Mrs. Harriet Clark of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Miss Mary Bagley of Boston called Tuesday on the Misses Cutler, enroute to their summer cottage at Danville.

Mrs. G. H. Davis most pleasantly entertained a Social Five at her summer home in Crystal Lake grove on Thursday for the benefit of the W. C. T. U., conveying the party in her motor boat, Spunoon.

The following letters remain uncalled for at the postoffice. Please say advertised when calling for these letters. C. P. Berwick, Octave Cusson, Cora Orcutt, Frank Hall, J. M. Pattison, Bert Sandite.

H. A. Harding returned Saturday from Plattsburg, N. Y., bringing with him a handsome brown